No Fuss

Check out this totally cute baby cap by Fuss. The "thinking cap" just cracks me up. As does another from their line "night cap".

I just love adorable phrases on t-'s and clothes right now. Must be a phase I'm going through. I think it helps bring a little humor in the world to have something unexpected printed on your apparel.

I also love doing business with a company that helps a good cause. Lissa, owner of Fuss, donates a portion of their proceeds to the Ovarian Cancer Rearch Fund, in honor of women everywhere fighting this disease, and in memory of her mother.

Give a silly gift. Buy it from Fuss. Feel good.
